Hymn of the month.

“All Hail The Power Of Jesus Name”

All hail the power of Jesus' Name, let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem, and Crown Him, Lord of all.
Bring forth the royal diadem, and Crown Him, Lord of all.

Ye chosen seed of Israel's race, ye ransomed from the fall,
Hail Him who saves you by His Grace, and Crown Him Lord of all
Hail Him who saves you by His Grace, and Crown Him Lord of all

Let every kindred, every tribe, on this terrestrial ball,
To Him all majesty ascribe, And Crown Him Lord of all
To Him all majesty ascribe, And Crown Him Lord of all

O that with younder sacred throng, we at His feet may fall
We'll join the everlasting song, And Crown Him Lord of all
We'll join the everlasting song, And Crown Him Lord of all.

One of the most dramatic instances of [this hymn's] use was found in the experience of the Rev. E. P. Scott in India. His friends had urged him not to venture near a certain barbarous inland tribe, whom he wished to evangelize. But he went forth with high courage, never wavering in his duty, and trusting in God to protect him. When at last he reached their country among the hills, he came upon a company of these savages. Immediately they surrounded him, pointing their spears at him with threatening scowls. He had nothing in his hand but his violin; and so, closing his eyes, he began to play and sing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name." When at last he opened his eyes he expected to be killed instantly. But his life had been spared through the singing of the hymn. Their spears had dropped, and they received him first with curiosity and interest, and then later with eagerness, as he told them the gospel story and won their hearts to the will of Jesus Christ.
